ANSWER OF CHANDRAKANT PATEL

COMES NOW Chandrakant Patel ("C. Patel") and asserts its affirmative defenses and responds to the plaintiff's complaint as follows:

FIRST DEFENSE

The complaint fails to set forth a cause of action upon which relief may be granted.

SECOND DEFENSE

The plaintiff is barred from any recovery by novation.

THIRD DEFENSE

The plaintiff is barred from any recovery by waiver and estoppel.

FOURTH DEFENSE

The plaintiff is barred from any recovery by illegality because it is seeking to recover an unenforceable penalty.

FIFTH DEFENSE

Having raised his affirmative defenses, and without waiving said defenses, C. Patel responds to each and every paragraph of the plaintiff's complaint as follows:

1.

C. Patel is without sufficient knowledge or information upon which to form a belief as to the truth or accuracy of the allegations contained in paragraph 1 of the complaint.

2.

C. Patel is without sufficient knowledge or information upon which to form a belief as to the truth or accuracy of the allegations contained in paragraph 2 of the complaint.

3.

C. Patel admits paragraph 3 of the complaint.

4.

C. Patel admits paragraph 4 of the complaint.

5.

C. Patel admits paragraph 5 of the complaint.

6.

C. Patel admits paragraph 6 of the complaint, but denies that the plaintiff is entitled to recover any amounts.

7.

C. Patel admits paragraph 7 of the complaint.

8.

C. Patel denies paragraph 8 of the complaint as pled, but admits that “Super 8” is the name of a hotel franchise in the United States.

9.

C. Patel is without sufficient knowledge or information upon which to form a belief as to the truth or accuracy of the allegations contained in paragraph 9 of the complaint.

10.

Paragraph 10 requires no response from C. Patel because it makes legal, not factual allegations. To the extent a response is required, paragraph 10 is denied.

11.

C. Patel denies paragraph 11 of the complaint, because it makes legal, not factual allegations. C. Patel is without sufficient knowledge or information upon which to form a belief as to the truth or accuracy of any factual allegations contained therein.

12.

C. Patel is without sufficient knowledge or information upon which to form a belief as to the truth or accuracy of the allegations contained in paragraph 12 of the complaint.

13.

C. Patel is without sufficient knowledge or information upon which to form a belief as to the truth or accuracy of the allegations contained in paragraph 13 of the complaint.
